

MCLE: 32nd Annual Business & Securities Law Conference 2014

OCTOBER 30, 2014

The 32nd Annual Business & Securities Law Conference features a wide variety of panels covering new legal developments and practice trends for both private and public companies. These panels focus on the issues that business and securities lawyers encounter daily in counseling clients and structuring transactions.

The Conference provides an annual update on recent developments in Delaware law; a discussion of recent SEC developments, including new and pending rulemaking and interpretive guidance; the new Rule 506(c) and the SEC's crowdfunding proposals; M&A deal trends, including advising the board in M&A transactions, potential financial advisor liability, and latest trends in certain deal terms; and the latest trends in venture capital deal terms and notable developments in the world of venture capital.

WilmerHale Partners Lillian Brown, Ed Pease and Jennifer Zepralka, and Counsel Gary Schall will be presenting at the event.
