

MCLE: Pretrial Litigation

SEPTEMBER 17-18, 2014

This two-day seminar provided new litigation associates with the key skills of pretrial litigation practices that are essential to handling personal injury matters and business cases. Experienced faculty showed attendees how to file documents, prepare motions, respond to discovery and take/defend a deposition. The presenters gave an overview of pretrial litigation—from filing the suit to alternative approaches to settlement—and master litigation practice.

WilmerHale Counsel Elizabeth Kent Cullen spoke on the panel "Deposition Basics," and Counsel Seth Orkand was also a featured speaker.
