

MIT: Get Smart: Raising Money for Early-Stage Companies: Alternatives For Entrepreneurs In a Down Economy

2008-11-20

MIT will present, from the Get Smart series, an event entitled, "Raising Money for Early-Stage Companies: Alternatives For Entrepreneurs In a Down Economy." Attendees will have the opportunity to hear the inside scoop on how to best position themselves, their ideas and their companies for intellectual property due diligence. They will also learn how to avoid the common mistakes that scare away many early stage tech-savvy investors, and how to do so without breaking the legal fee budget.

WilmerHale Counsel Joshua Foxwill be the session leader at this event. WilmerHale is also a sponsor of this event.
