

MIT Innovation Series Event: Building a Proactive Cyber Defense Strategy, from Tools to Tactics

CAMBRIDGE, MA

Cyber attacks against companies of all sizes appear to hit without warning, leaving management teams in a state of crisis. Though, what if it were possible to predict an attack before the first shot was fired and if so, what would a proactive cyber defense strategy look like? Featured speakers will provide an actionable primer that highlights the tools and tactics to help your team stay a step ahead.
