

National Asian Pacific American Bar Association: 2009 Convention

NOVEMBER 18-22, 2009

The National Asian Pacific American Bar Association (NAPABA) will hold its 2009 Annual Convention entitled, “NAPABA at 21: The Revolution Continues.” NAPABA is the national association of Asian Pacific American (APA) attorneys, judges, law professors and law students and represents the interests of over 45,000 APA attorneys and approximately 57 local APA bar associations. The convention will assist the next generation of APA lawyers in developing the skills and contacts necessary to succeed and survive in this profession.

On November 21, Co-Managing Partner Bill Lee will serve on a panel entitled, “Fourth of July Fireworks in the Courtroom.”

WilmerHale Associate Caroline Nguyen is chair of a panel entitled, “The Revolution from Within: Promoting APA Progress Through Legislative Means.”

WilmerHale is also a sponsor of this program.
