

Negotiating the Termination Provisions in A Public Company Acquisition Agreement

2012-03-06

The termination section of a public company merger agreement is one of the more intensely negotiated sections of that agreement. This program, sponsored by The American Bar Association Business Law Section and the ABA Center for Continuing Legal Education, features seasoned public company deal lawyers discussing key issues in these negotiations and performing a mock negotiation of the key provisions utilizing the provisions of the ABA Model Merger Agreement.

WilmerHale partner Hal Leibowitz will be a featured speaker during this webcast.
