

Northeastern University CEO Breakfast Forum

2008-05-08

This terrific networking opportunity, presented by Northeastern University, has unlimited passes to attend. The forum features nationally-recognized business leaders and includes an audience of chief executive officers and other senior executives from the Greater Boston area. The program is recognized as one of the leading forums in the country. The best time to network is from 7:30-8:00 so we encourage you to arrive early.
