

Practising Law Institute: 44th Annual Securities Regulation Institute

NOVEMBER 8, 2012

The Practising Law Institute's faculty, from private practice, investment banking, accounting firms, the judiciary, academia and government oversight agencies, will put the developments of the past year into proper perspective and prepared attendees for 2013 and beyond. Panelists shared their unique insights and experiences and offered practical strategies and solutions in the form of best practices, with the goal of helping attendees perform successfully in today's continually evolving corporate, financial and regulatory environment.

WilmerHale Partner Lillian Brown was a featured speaker at this event.
