

Practising Law Institute: 47th Annual Securities Regulation Institute

OCTOBER 28-30, 2015

For more than four decades, PLI's Annual Securities Regulation Institute has been a premier conference on securities regulation and corporate governance for lawyers, from new associates to seasoned practitioners. This year's Institute will bring you leading securities and corporate legal authorities to deliver practical insights and real-world strategies and solutions to many of today's challenges. The Institute's comprehensive and practice-oriented sessions will provide the latest developments and trends impacting the legal industry.

WilmerHale Partner Meredith Cross will moderate the panel session "Disclosure Quandaries: Conflict Minerals, Clawbacks and More," and Partner William McLucas will be a featured speaker during the panel session "The Defense Perspective: Strategies and Practical Considerations from the Source."
