

Practising Law Institute: Corporate Governance – A Master Class 2013

FEBRUARY 27, 2013

Recent developments, including increasingly intense shareholder activism, seemingly shorter investment time horizons, and regulatory developments under the Dodd-Frank Act, have accelerated changes in corporate governance. Many of the changes are fundamental and will have a profound impact on public companies, their directors and management, and the securities markets. Faculty will discuss what has already occurred as well as what is yet to come.

WilmerHale Partner Meredith Cross presented a session, "'New Look' Compensation Committee the Same as the 'Old Look' Compensation Committee?" during this PLI webcast, with Stephanie Abramson, Dean, Graduate Professional and Executive Education Programs, NYU Shanghai, New York University and John Halvey, Group Executive Vice President and General Counsel, NYSE Euronext.
