

Practising Law Institute: Internal Investigations 2008: Legal, Ethical & Strategic Issues

2008-06-10

This program, presented by PLI, will take attendees through an internal investigation from beginning to end, covering the important fundamentals as well as the most recent developments, trends and best practices in this increasingly important area. Attendees will benefit from the insider perspective and real-life experiences of an expert faculty comprised of top government regulators from the DOJ, SEC and state AG's offices, chief in-house counsel, leading private practitioners and forensic accountants and will come away with the practical tools needed to counsel their clients or company regarding internal investigations.

WilmerHale Partner Robert McCaw will be a moderator of a panel entitled, "Conducting the Investigation."
