

Resolving International Business Disputes Using the WTO, BITs, Commercial Arbitration and the EU Courts

OCTOBER 6-11, 2013

WilmerHale Partner Naboth van den Broek was a featured speaker for a panel entitled “Resolving International Business Disputes Using the WTO, BITs, Commercial Arbitration and the EU Courts.” The panel took a comparative analysis of the efficacy of using these three different tools available to international traders and investors to resolve disputes. It focused on jurisdiction, remedies, evidence, costs, time, enforcement and other relevant issues that would suggest using one or more of these remedies.
