

Road Map For an IPO

JUNE 20-21, 2000

Going public is often perceived as an enviable mark of great success - an acknowledgement from that most skeptical of judges - Wall Street.

However, it is just one ingredient in a company's continued or ultimate success. The best option for you and your company is the one that will give you the sharpest edge in today's competitive environment. To judge if the going public option is right for you, join us for a realistic view of the going public process, including a view of the costs, benefits and risks.
