

Securities Docket: SEC Enforcement: Key Developments From FY 2009 and What May Be Ahead in FY 2010

2009-11-04

This webinar, presented by Securities Docket, will focus on the many changes that have taken place at the SEC, especially within the Division of Enforcement, which has been the subject of harsh criticism from the media, Congress, and its own inspector general in the wake of the subprime credit market meltdown and the Madoff scandal. Under the leadership of a new Chairman, Mary Schapiro, and a new Director, Robert Khuzami, the Enforcement Division has implemented some of the most sweeping changes in recent years, increasing its efforts to provide more effective tools to obtain compliance with requests for documents, information, and testimony. Participants of this webinar will have the opportunity to hear panelists address these and other developments in the SEC Division of Enforcement.

WilmerHale partner Bill McLucas will be a featured panelist at this event.
