

Software as a Service (SaaS) Agreements: Key Concepts and Issues in Drafting and Negotiating SaaS Agreements

MARCH 3, 2015

This program will provide a comprehensive review and analysis of Software as a Service (SaaS) agreements and discussion of key issues. Attendees will acquire insights and knowledge to assist their clients in drafting, negotiating and conducting due diligence in connection with SaaS agreements. Speakers will cover the following topics:

- What is the Cloud, and why use the Cloud?
- Data & data legal compliance
- Security considerations
- How to address transitioning to and from SaaS solutions
- Potential pitfalls and traps for the unwary
- And more!

This program will provide attendees with practical skills that they can apply in real world settings. Whether you are a new attorney, new to the field of SaaS agreements, or want to improve your skills and knowledge in this field, this program will be a great resource. A networking reception will follow the program.

WilmerHale Partner Jeffrey Johnson will be a featured speaker.
