

Special Olympics Massachusetts: Bio-Ball 2010

2010-03-27

BioBall is a one day basketball tournament involving 16 local biotech and pharma companies and 16 Special Olympics basketball teams. The 16 participating companies are each paired with a local Special Olympics basketball team to compete throughout the day in 5 on 5 competitions. Since BioBall began 5 years ago, the event has raised over $310,000 for basketball programs and activities at Special Olympics Massachusetts.

WilmerHale is a proud sponsor of this event.
