

Supreme Court Summer Institute for Teachers

JUNE 22, 2013

The Supreme Court Summer Institute for Teachers includes sessions led by Supreme Court experts, journalists, authors and lawyers, who give teachers an in-depth understanding of how the Court chooses and decides cases, and what it is like to argue before the Court. The Institute covers six current or recent cases, and culminates with a visit to the Court to hear decisions handed down.

WilmerHale Counsel Annie Owens participated in the event this year and provided insight on Florida v. Jardines, a Fourth Amendment dog sniff case in which the Firm filed an amicus brief.
