

SXSW 2016's Coming to America: Bob and Judy's Great American Adventure

AUSTIN, TX

As part of SXSW's 2016 Startup Village programming track, during this session—aimed at tech startups that seek to establish operations in the United States—panelists will offer insights into some of the common concerns of establishing such operations, including optimal location, corporate structuring, IPR, contractual terms, tax structuring, talent acquisition, and US state, local and federal government support. WilmerHale Partner Barry Hurewitz will present on international data protection considerations during the program.
