

The 13th Annual Corporate Counsel Institute

MARCH 12-13, 2009

This Georgetown University Law Center event includes an inspiring keynote speech from former Detroit Mayor and ABA President Dennis Archer, a Supreme Court review from the current solicitor general and former Solicitor General Paul Clement, a discussion of the latest concerns and issues regarding compliance, employment law and international issues in special two-part break-out sessions, an incisive report on the election results' impact from NPR and ABC News reporter Cokie Roberts, an overview of what leading companies are doing to maximize environmental sustainability, and an up-to-the-minute report on corporate law developments from the Delaware Court of Chancery, among several other sessions.

WilmerHale partner Jamie Gorelick is a featured speaker at this event, where she will participate in a panel entitled "Five Hard Questions In-House Counsel Need to Ask When Confronted with an Internal Investigation."
