

The 5th Annual Auto-ID & Sensing Solutions Expo

MAY 7, 2014

The 5th Annual Auto-ID & Sensing Solutions Expo will feature two distinguished panels plus an expected 60 tabletop technology exhibits. Attendees will be able to gain clarity about the world of wireless and identification technologies that are gaining much broader traction in today's marketplace. The Expo (part of Boston IoT Week) will attract a diverse crowd of entrepreneurs, implementers, developers, investors, research analysts, end users, consultants, educators, integrators, students and technology providers, plus many others. New this year, speakers will present during Expert Madness, an idea generating session on IoT subject areas.

WilmerHale Partner Mick Bain will be a featured speaker during Expert Madness on the topic entitled, "Legal."
