

The Directors Roundtable - Challenges Facing Boards of Directors: SEC & DOJ Enforcement in a Changing Regulatory Environment

2008-12-04

With a worsening economy and a new administration arriving in January, there will be significant regulatory and enforcement challenges that executives and Directors will need to address. The Directors Roundtable presented a seminar entitled, "Challenges Facing Boards of Directors: SEC & DOJ Enforcement in a Changing Regulatory Environment" where a panel of experts discussed the ongoing financial crisis; potential regulatory reform; the increasingly international scope of financial reporting and government enforcement; new developments impacting internal investigations; and what will influence key areas of focus for regulators in 2009 including white-collar enforcement priorities of the Department of Justice and the SEC.

WilmerHale partner Randall Lee and counsel Patrick Murphy were featured speakers at this event.
