

The District of Columbia Bar: Section 404 of Sarbanes-Oxley

2005-12-06

The District of Columbia Bar Association Section of Corporation, Finance and Securities Law presented a discussion that covered the key issues, regulatory and enforcement developments, and real-world examples relating to the requirement under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act that public companies report on the effectiveness of internal controls over financial reporting.

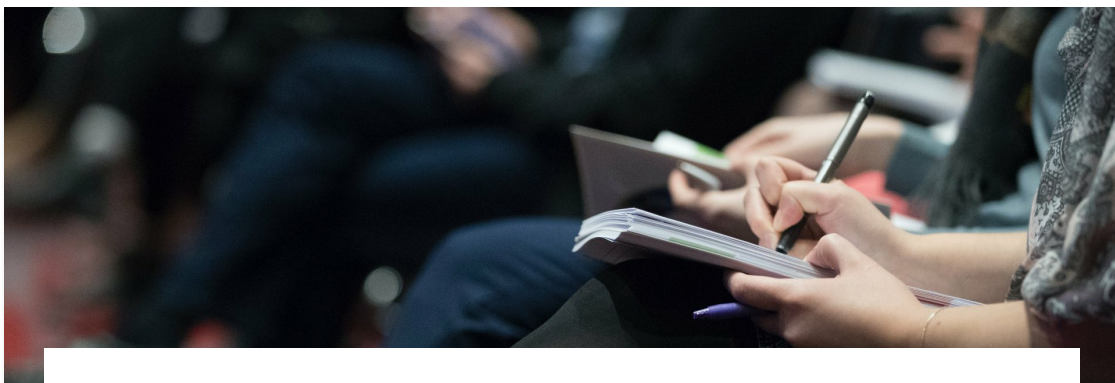

WilmerHale partner Douglas Davison served as a moderator at this program.
