

The Impact of Dodd-Frank on FDIC-Insured Banks

2011-10-18

The Dodd-Frank Act directed sweeping changes to be made to the financial services landscape, many of them to be implemented through rules formulated by many separate regulatory agencies. Financial institutions need to understand these proposed changes and how they may impact their businesses. This panel of distinguished professionals will help financial institutions to understand the issues surrounding the proposed changes.

WilmerHale partner Gail Bernstein and counsel Sara Kelsey are featured speakers in this live webcast.
