

The Indus Entrepreneurs: Financial Planning & Investing for Women

2008-09-11

A study by Hewitt has revealed that in the US Women need to save more than men to sustain their standard of living in retirement. The study pointed out women could potentially increase their nest egg by 18% by investing 2 years earlier than they currently do, or 23% by investing years earlier.

The Indus Entrepreneurs will present a panel discussion entitled, "Financial Planning & Investing for Women" where attendees will have the opportunity to discuss strategies of investing and what vehicles/instruments that must keep in mind when securing one's retirement.

WilmerHale is a sponsor of this event.
