

The Indus Entrepreneurs: Life Sciences VC Outlook

2009-03-11

This event, hosted by TiE-Boston, will give attendees the opportunity to learn about how entrepreneurs raise capital as well as how VCs analyze potential investments by presenting an insiders' look on what really goes on in the boardroom. Top VCs will evaluate 2 real-life start-up pitches and will provide a brief outlook on the topics and trends of biotech, medtech, diagnostics and healthcare IT industries in 2009. This is also a perfect opportunity to mingle and network with VCs, entrepreneurs, HBS students, and scientific researchers/inventors.

WilmerHale is a sponsor of this event.
