

The Indus Entrepreneurs: Social Entrepreneurship Special Interest Group

2008-07-31

TiE-Boston will host a discussion that will feature a cross-section of experts from industry, academia, and the social sector who will address the breakthrough ideas being implemented worldwide to address the sanitation crisis. From national initiatives to grass roots activism, attendees will learn roles they may play as an entrepreneur or a concerned citizen.

WilmerHale is a sponsor of this event.
