2008-12-10

TiE will present an event entitled, "The Straight Talk on Legal Process Outsourcing (LPO)." LPO is a rapidly growing segment of the knowledge process outsourcing industry, providing back office and paralegal/legal assistance to both corporate counsel and law firms. The new industry deploys both labor arbitrage and technological advances, and is raising the bar toward higher levels of servicing of professional and scientific products and services. Attendees will hear from a panel of experts working in diverse roles within the LPO domain, including LPO service providers, corporate counsel deploying LPO, and non-profit industry resources assisting them. The panel will discuss different LPO business models, industry growth drivers, client experiences, and future directions for this young industry.

WilmerHale is a sponsor of this event.
