

The Knowledge Congress: Banking & Financial Services Law for Attorneys: A 2009 Perspective

2009-05-14

This program, presented by The Knowledge Congress, will provide a comprehensive overview of the current U.S. system of regulation of depository institutions and asset management and the unique issues involved in advising banks and other financial institutions in the current regulatory environment. This program will also address how to satisfy certain compliance requirements, how to advise entities subject to multiple regulations, how to manage bank failures, how the new FDIC resolutions affect banks and other financial institutions, and how to confront the ethical challenges facing financial services attorneys.

WilmerHale counsel Sara Kelsey will be a featured speaker at this program.
