

The Power of Big Data: Shaping the Future of FinTech

CAMBRIDGE, MA

The disruptive waves of FinTech innovations, startups and investments are rapidly transforming the financial world. Massive quantities of data are constantly aggregated—this data is typically “cloudy” and can be impossible to analyze without the right tools. Which systems can the industry embrace to leverage Big Data in order to grow value, unfurl, and accelerate?

The fourth event in this Future of Money series will host a cross-border panel of Swiss and American industry leaders to discuss technological, innovative and entrepreneurial aspects that bring the FinTech industry to the next level.
