

Third Edition of the Annual International Arbitration Month at Georgetown University Law Center

FEBRUARY 19, 2015

International Arbitration Month is an event that reflects the growing importance of arbitration internationally and addresses the desire of students and practitioners to gain expertise in this field. International Arbitration Month will consist of a series of panels on contemporary issues in international commercial and investment arbitration with distinguished speakers, and will be open to both practitioners and law students in the Washington DC area.

WilmerHale Partner Rachael Kent will participate in a workshop titled “Valuation and Calculation of Damages in International Arbitration.”
