

University of Southern California Gould School of Law: 2010 Intellectual Property Institute

2010-03-23

This day-long event, presented by the USC Gould School of Law, will bring together national speakers to analyze sophisticated topics and provide practical take-aways to attendees. Focusing on copyright, patent and trademark law, the Institute will offer morning plenary sessions, a luncheon keynote, afternoon tracked breakout sessions and four networking opportunities, including a hosted cocktail reception.

WilmerHale partner Robert Badal will be a panel moderator at this event. He will moderate the panel entitled "Implications of the DOJ's and FTC's enhanced enforcement related to single firm behavior on IP rights holders."
