

WilmerHale Client Seminar - Labor and Employment Law 2006 - New Challenges for your Personnel Work

2006-03-15

There has been rapid development in employment law due to government changes, European legislation and case law. The demands on a modern human resources management are also constantly rising. Our seminar will address management board members, staff executives and employees in human resources and legal departments. This event offers an up-to-date and concise overview of important developmental processes as well as on legal improvements for the year 2006. This event will also provide useful information about the adaptation of working practice and drawing up employment contracts concerning the new anti-discrimination law.
