

WilmerHale Seminar: Raising the Bar on Information Security - The New Massachusetts Regs and Beyond

2009-01-29

WilmerHale will hold a seminar for a briefing on Massachusetts' security breach law. The agenda will include: an overview of privacy and data security developments at the state and federal levels; state laws dictating privacy and security practices, document destruction requirements and the like; the FTC's red flag rules and other requirements; legislative trends at the federal level in the new Administration and The Mass Regs: Who is covered, what is required.

WilmerHale Partners Lynn Charytan, Becky Burr and David Medine, of the firm's Regulatory and Government Affairs Department, will be featured speakers at this event.
