

WilmerHale Webinar: EU and Transatlantic Developments for 2010: An Update and Agenda for Business

2010-03-18

WilmerHale will present this webinar, aimed at all companies doing business in Europe. Participants will have the opportunity to hear discussions and insights on the many recent and upcoming changes in the EU and how these changes may affect both US and European companies. Topics to be discussed include: the Lisbon Treaty and changes it will bring, including the new roles of the EU President and EU Foreign Affairs Minister and the new EU decision-making procedures; the new European Parliament and its increased role in EU policymaking; the new European Commissioners, their cabinets and changes in top-level Commission staff; policy priorities for the years to come, including the Europe 2020 agenda; and key developments in select areas of transatlantic cooperation and EU affairs, including financial services, the EU Digital Agenda, trade, and energy and technology.

WilmerHale partner Christian Duvernoy, special counsel Gail Bernstein, counsel Naboth van den Broek and consultant Jacques Bourgeois will be featured speakers at this event.
