2010-04-28

Presented by WilmerHale, this webinar featured an informative discussion on utilizing patent reexaminations as a litigation strategy. Among the topics discussed was the increasing importance of these requests and the potential risks and rewards, including lower costs than traditional litigation, that come with filing a reexamination. Attendees also had the opportunity to explore the two types of reexaminations—ex parte and inter partes—and their possible outcomes.

WilmerHale Partner Richard Goldenberg and former Partner Stephen Muller were featured speakers at this event.
