
Urgent Message Regarding Fraudulent Hiring Attempts

FEBRUARY 19, 2015

WilmerHale has become aware that individuals not associated with our firm are offering employment opportunities with the firm in exchange for personal information about the applicant. These communications are fraudulent in nature and in no way represent legitimate employment opportunities with WilmerHale. Individuals interested in employment with the firm should visit our Careers site to apply through proper channels.

Instances of Internet fraud should be reported to the Internet Crime Complaint Center. If you were placed in contact with a fraudulent individual about employment opportunities with WilmerHale using an online job board, you should also report the incident directly to that company's appropriate customer care function.
