

Partner Lee Greenfield Co-Editorial Chair of Newly Released ABA Mergers & Acquisitions Treatise

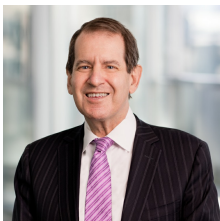

OCTOBER 23, 2015

WilmerHale Partner Lee Greenfield was the co-editorial chair of the recently-published treatise, “Mergers and Acquisitions: Understanding the Antitrust Issues,” released in October 2015 by the American Bar Association (ABA). The work provides a comprehensive review of the substantive US antitrust law relating to mergers and acquisitions. Greenfield, along with Ronan Harty of Davis Polk, served as the principal organizer and overall editor of this 600-page book, which is the ABA’s official treatise on the substantive antitrust aspects of M&A.

Greenfield practices in the Regulatory and Government Affairs Department, representing clients in a broad range of complex antitrust matters. He focuses on issues relating to obtaining merger clearance for transactions in a diverse range of industries, including defense and aerospace, computer products, scientific equipment, agricultural and other chemicals, entertainment, professional services and financial services.

Greenfield has been recognized as a leader in antitrust law in 2008-2015 by Chambers USA, named to the 2012-2015 DC Super Lawyers lists, and was listed as a leading Competition/Antitrust economist in the DC area by Expert Guides in 2014.
