

---

WilmerHale's Anne Lee Elected to Board of Directors of Prestigious Colorado Intellectual Property Association

AUGUST 17, 2016

WilmerHale Associate Anne Lee has been elected to the board of directors of The Colorado Intellectual Property American Inn of Court, a prestigious Colorado-based association of legal professionals.

"We are thrilled—but not surprised—that Anne's peers in Colorado's legal community would elect her to the board of directors of this highly respected association," said Natalie Hanlon Leh, co-partner-in-charge of WilmerHale's Denver office. "Anne's level of expertise in intellectual property litigation is matched only by her strong leadership skills. It is heartening to see that she is as highly respected throughout Colorado's legal community as she is within WilmerHale."

The Colorado Intellectual Property American Inn of Court is part of the American Inns of Court Foundation, the country's oldest and largest legal mentoring organization. It has grown to more than 100,000 members nationwide over the past 30 years, and members of the association work together to build and strengthen professional relationships, discuss and analyze complex legal issues, offer mentoring opportunities and elevate the legal profession.