
BoA Gets Reverse FCA Suit Slashed on 2nd Look

APRIL 28, 2017

A Florida federal judge changed her mind on Thursday, April 27, and tossed most of a whistleblower suit claiming WilmerHale Partner Matthew Martens' client, Bank of America Corp., dodged up to $10 billion in fines by falsely promising the US government that the bank would change its foreclosure practices. Read the article published by Law360.