
WilmerHale Represents Genpact in Acquisition of BrightClaim

MAY 8, 2017

Genpact, a global professional services firm focused on delivering digital transformation for clients, announced that it has acquired BrightClaim and its associated company National Vendor, both leading providers of integrated claims solutions to the US property and casualty (P&C) insurance market. The acquisition marries domain expertise with advanced technologies to fundamentally change how insurers manage the claims process, allowing carriers to create a seamless claims experience for their customers. Terms of the deal are not disclosed.

Jeff Stein led the WilmerHale team representing Genpact in this deal, which included Mike Bevilacqua, Barry Hurewitz, Julie Murphy-Clinton, Amy Null, Claire Sarno, Matt Schnall, Laura Schneider, Kaylan Sliney, Meghan Walsh and Bill Warren.

The full release is available at www.genpact.com.