
Law Week Colorado Names Mindy Sooter a Top Woman Attorney

MAY 16, 2017

Partner Mindy Sooter was featured in Law Week Colorado's 2017 Top Women Attorneys list, an annual special edition that highlights lawyers who have made a significant contribution to the law or legal community.

Located in the firm's Denver office, Sooter focuses on patent litigation and other intellectual property and business disputes, with an emphasis on cases involving telecommunications, electrical engineering and computer science.

Dubbing her "a litigator with a spark," Law Week Colorado highlights Sooter's success, dedication to mentoring the next generation of female attorneys, and commitment to pro bono work with the Rocky Mountain Immigrant Advocacy Network, which provides legal counsel to adolescent immigrants under pressure of federal laws. Read the full article