
Three Denver Partners Named Top Lawyers by Influential 5280 Magazine

JANUARY 12, 2018

WilmerHale Partners Natalie Hanlon Leh, Andy Spielman and Keith Trammell have again been recognized as three of Denver's Top Lawyers by 5280 Magazine in its annual ranking of the city's most respected attorneys. Hanlon Leh was recognized in the category of intellectual property litigation, while Spielman was recognized for his knowledge of and experience in environmental issues, and Trammell in mergers and acquisitions.

To create its rankings, 5280 Magazine surveys more than 16,000 attorneys in the metro Denver area to identify the most successful and respected lawyers in 50 legal specialties. It then conducts follow-up research to further vet those attorneys who were rated most highly among their peers.

None of the three WilmerHale partners are newcomers to 5280 Magazine's list. Now in its fourth year, all three have perfect records, with each having appeared in the magazine's 2015, 2016, 2017 and now 2018 rankings.
