
Chambers USA Names WilmerHale to 2018 Awards Shortlist

MAY 2, 2018

WilmerHale has been shortlisted for the 2018 Chambers USA Awards for international trade, privacy and data security, and securities and financial services regulation. The firm is one of eight finalists selected for international trade and securities, and one of seven finalists selected for privacy and data security. The awards are based on Chambers' research for its 2018 guidebook, reflecting notable achievements during the past year, including outstanding work, strategic growth and excellent client service. The award ceremony and dinner will be held May 24 in New York.
