
WilmerHale Partners and Practices Named Among Managing Intellectual Property's 2018 IP Stars

MAY 17, 2018

Managing Intellectual Property's 2018 IP Stars Handbook recognizes WilmerHale, 19 of its partners as leaders in the field and two counsel as rising stars. IP Stars identifies lawyers based on their knowledge, outcomes achieved for clients and unique strengths in the given practice area.

The following WilmerHale partners are included in this edition of "the definitive guide to leading IP firms and lawyers," while Counsel Brittany Amadi and Michaela Sewall were named rising stars.

Michael Bevilacqua

David Cavanaugh

Trevor Cook

Robert Gunther

Joseph Haag

Natalie Hanlon Leh

William Lee

William McElwain

Joseph Mueller

Lisa Pirozzolo

Mark Selwyn

Mindy Sooter

Donald Steinberg

Anthony Trenton

Cynthia Vreeland

Justin Watts

Seth Waxman

Amy Wigmore

Paul Wolfson

WilmerHale is also recognized in the below practice categories (listed by region).

United States

Life sciences

Copyright
ITC litigation
Patent contentious
PTAB litigation

California

Patent contentious

Colorado

Intellectual property

District of Columbia

Patent contentious

Massachusetts

Intellectual property

United Kingdom

Patent contentious

In addition, WilmerHale is among the firms with the most women featured to Managing Intellectual Property's Top 250 Women in IP, with five women listed:

Natalie Hanlon Leh

Lisa Pirozzolo

Mindy Sooter

Cynthia Vreeland

Amy Wigmore

IP Stars features a combination of detailed national analysis and firm rankings specific to every state, plus the District of Columbia. Visit the IP Stars' website to view the complete 2018 rankings and editorial.