
A National Journal Profile on Partner Debo Adegbile

OCTOBER 18, 2014

Partner Debo Adegbile, who recently joined WilmerHale from the Senate Judiciary Committee and prior to that was acting president and director-counsel at the NAACP Legal Defense Fund, Inc. (LDF), was profiled by National Journal on October 18, 2014. The feature provided Adegbile the opportunity to discuss his upbringing in New York City, the draw towards defending civil rights, recent career changes, the professional responsibilities of lawyers and a reflection on how he has dedicated his career to equality and opportunity.

Adegbile focuses his practice in the firm's Litigation/Controversy Department and was recently honored by the Southern Center for Human Rights for demonstrating exceptional courage and tenacity in defending human rights and justice.

Read the article.