
Bill Lee Included Among Boston Business Journal's "Power 50"

2013-11-12

The Boston Business Journal has again honored WilmerHale Partner Bill Lee as a part of its annual "Power 50" feature—a list that is meant to identify and honor the most successful and influential individuals in Boston. This is the third consecutive year that Lee has been included on this list.

As highlighted by the Boston Business Journal, "Bill Lee is considered one of the most successful intellectual property lawyers in the country. The first Asian-American to lead a major US law firm, Lee has been named one of the most influential attorneys by his peers repeatedly over the past decade."

Lee is a leading intellectual property litigator who has represented a variety of technology-focused clients for more than 35 years. He has tried more than 100 cases to verdict and argued more than 75 cases to the Court of Appeals of the Federal Circuit and other appellate courts. Those cases have included some of the highest profile patent cases of the last decade. He also has been a member of the faculty at Harvard Law School for more than 10 years and was recently elected as the Harvard Corporation's next senior fellow—a position he will hold beginning on July 1, 2014.
