
Cathedral High School Honors WilmerHale

2008-10-29

Cathedral High School honored WilmerHale with its annual award at the Partnership for Success Dinner held on October 16. The firm was recognized for its longstanding and passionate commitment to the students and faculty of Cathedral High School, which includes not only financial support, but investment in the students through volunteer, mentoring and career engagement. This is the first time a business has received this distinguished award.

WilmerHale has been a partner of Cathedral High School since 1997, providing unrestricted charitable dollars, pro bono legal service and an in-depth volunteer program as part of the firm's Youth and Education Initiative. The firm's attorneys and staff have worked with Cathedral High School students at annual college application workshops, Arts and the Law theater performances, freshmen literacy and public speaking programs and the firm's school-wide Career Day, with over 70 Boston professionals fostering career and education development.

Cathedral High School helps students of various faiths, economic conditions and ethnic backgrounds receive a quality education, which provides them with the critical skills and self confidence they need to be successful. Cathedral High Schools' Adopt-A-Student Foundation's endowment provides tuition assistance to students who dream of a better life through education. Click here to learn more.
