
Community Service Award Presented to the Firm

2003-01-24

In December 2002, the firm received a "Community Service Award" from its pro bono client Covenant House Washington, in recognition of continuing legal services provided to the organization by the firm. The firm received this award for the eighth consecutive year.