
E-Verify Effective Date Postponed Again

2009-01-28

The US Chamber of Commerce announced yesterday that the federal government has postponed from February 20, 2009, to May 21, 2009, the effective date on which federal contractors must implement the E-Verify system to check employees' work eligibility. For more on the E-Verify system, see our recent Email Alert.