
Global Competition Review Gives Top Nod to DC Antitrust Group

2011-05-26

On May 26, Global Competition Review (GCR) released its list of Washington DC's leading firms for government antitrust, and WilmerHale again received a top-tier nod, achieving a listing in the "Elite" category.

GCR highlighted the practice's blockbuster year and major client successes, particularly in the technology and pharmaceutical sectors, and recognized Partners Thomas Mueller, James Lowe and William J. Kolasky among the "Who's Who of Competition." In addition, GCR called attention to WilmerHale's work for Intel, Cisco and Cephalon, along with the firm's cartel work advising clients in the air cargo, LCD, auto supplies, freight forwarding and private equity industries.
